Laramie Project

October 6-8, Center for the Arts

In October 1998, Matthew Shepard was viciously beaten, tied to a fence, and left to die in Laramie, Wyoming. Following the attack, Moisés Kaufman and the Tectonic Theater Project conducted interviews with hundreds of Laramie residents which were used to create this emotionally charged story. $20 General Admission; $10 Students, Staff, Seniors and Groups.

Amateur Drag Show

October 21, JC Bistro at 7:30pm

Join Pride Alliance as they showcase student drag performers in this fall's amateur drag show. Don't forget your one dollar bills! Co-sponsored by Pride Alliance & Student Involvement

Prayers For Bobby

October 13, JC George's at 7:30pm

"Prayers for Bobby" film screening and discussion. Doors open and refreshments available at 7pm. The film is a true story of Bobby Griffith and his mother, of coming out in one fundamentalist Christian household, and ultimately of suicide. The movie focuses on a mother's search for meaning, healing and hope.

National Coming Out Week: Out & Ally Poster

October 11-14, LGBTQ Resources from 9am-5pm

Join us as we celebrate National Coming Out Week! To accompany our website's Out & Ally List we are inviting everyone, who wants to, to come out as LGBTQ or an ally and sign our Coming Out Day Poster. You can sign the poster all week outside our office in SUB 1, before it hangs in our office to commemorate the 2016 National Coming Out Week

Book Club is Back!

October 18, LGBTQ Resources at 7:30pm

We've decided to bring book club back, this time without the books! We are going to feature pickings from online publications like Everyday Feminism, the Lemonade Syllabus, the Black Lives Matter Syllabi, or Black Girl Dangerous.

Check out our website for the dates, topics, and reading list. The printed readings will be available in the office the week prior.

Safe Zone for Pronouns

October 26, Location TBA 11am-1pm

LGBTQ Resources is excited to continue the conversation on how we all can more effectively support and honor our trans and nonbinary students. We are rolling out a draft of a new Gender Module at this meeting and want to get your feedback! Email LuLu at ckelemen@gmu.edu to RSVP and get the location for the event.
