

PRE-PRIDE WEEK EVENTS

Thursday March 30th Love is Louder

7-9pm in Taylor Multipurpose Room

Join the Shenandoah Activities Council to boost students' self-confidence and build community

Monday April 3rd Safe Zone Training: Gender Module

1-4:30pm, please navigate to lgbtq.gmu.edu to register

Join us to focus on issues facing trans and nonbinary students

Monday April 3rd Pizza & Perspectives:

Contemporary Challenges to LGBTQ Civil Rights

6-7:15pm in Founders Hall Multipurpose Room, Arlington Campus

Join University Life Arlington's panel discussion featuring two law school adjuncts involved in LGBTQ legislation and BOV member Bob Witeck

FRIDAY, APRIL 7TH

Dine with Pride

All day long

Join Mason Dining & ShopMason to celebrate at Southside with festive cakes

University Libraries Present: Dinner and a Movie

7-10pm in the Gateway Instruction Room, Johnson Center

University Libraries will be screening "Kate Bornstein is a Queer & Pleasant Danger" and providing dinner

Sing with Pride

9pm-midnight in The Ridge

Join Housing & Residence Life's Head Resident Advisors for karaoke and food

SATURDAY, APRIL 8TH

Pride Week Talent Show

7-10pm in the Johnson Center Bistro

Pride Alliance invites you to come show off your skills— from drag to beyond

MONDAY, APRIL 10TH

Affirming Myself and Others

11am-1pm in Student Union Building (SUB) I Patriot's Lounge

Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS) and the Office of Diversity, Inclusion, & Multicultural Education (ODIME) invite you to celebrate yourself this Pride Week! With your permission, we'll snap a picture of you with a sign you create & we'll tweet about how amazing you are later

Safe(x) Sex & HIV Prevention in the LGBTQ Community

1-2:30pm in SUB I Room 3311

On National Youth HIV/AIDS Awareness Day, join our peer health educators and learn about current knowledge and resources around safe(r) sex in the LGBTQ community

Intersectionality: Crossroads of Race, Gender & Sexuality

3:30-6pm in SUB I Room 3B

An entry-level interactive session that allows people to pull from their own experiences to better understand race, gender, & sexuality both separately and intersectionally

Bisexuality Panel

7-9:30pm in SUB I Room 3B

Many people don't understand the "B" in LGBTQ. Come hear different perspectives of bisexuality from those who identify with the term

TUESDAY, APRIL 11TH

Notes of Hope: Pride Day at SciTech

11am-2pm in Bull Run Atrium, SciTech Campus

Join University Life SciTech for bracelets, wristbands, condoms, pens, & snacks

Sashay Away: Life After Mason

12:30-2:30pm in Career Services' Resource Room, SUB I Suite 3400

Career Services hosts a panel of alumni to discuss work-life balance, coping with work concessions, & building support & resilience for under/unemployment

Grad Student Happy Hour

4-7pm in The Rathskellar

Join the graduate students of LGBTQ Resources and Women & Gender Studies to toast Pride Week

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12TH

5, 6, and Now We Slay!

12-2pm in Johnson Center G34-DANCE

Explore the "feminine" through a dance class/combo that slays & snatches edges

Intersectionality in Comic Books

1:30-4:30pm in SUB I Room 3B

Come hear GMU students talk about the issues & identities that intersect with the LGBTQ+ community & comics

Nonbinary, Genderqueer, & Gender Nonconforming Panel

5-7pm in SUB I Room 3B

TQ Mason presents a panel to highlight different and intersectional experiences that transgender, nonbinary, and gender nonconforming students can have at Mason and beyond

Pride Alliance Presents: LGBTQ 101

7:30-10pm in Johnson Center Room B

Join Pride Alliance for their annual LGBTQ 101 Meeting, open to everyone

THURSDAY, APRIL 13TH

Pride Week Brunch

11am-2pm in SUB I Patriot's Lounge

Join us for Pride Week Brunch: a fun and social activity with food & games

Acing History: Building an Informed Aromantic & Asexual Community on Campus

2-3:30pm in SUB I Room 4210

Arrows & Aces presents an explicitly aromantic and asexual perspective on Pride and inclusion in the LGBTQ community

Moonlight Screening & Discussion

4:30-7:30pm in the Johnson Center Cinema

University Libraries, Film & Media Studies, Film & Video Studies, ODIME, and African & African American Studies invite you to view the Academy Award winning film

FRIDAY, APRIL 14TH

Lavender Graduation & Lambda Alumni Info Kiosk

8-10pm at Johnson Center Kiosk C

Stop by the kiosk for info about LavGrad and our alumni association

Annual Pride Week Drag Show

8-11pm in the Johnson Center Atrium

Join Patriot Activities Council, Student Involvement, and all of our student drag performers to close out Pride Week 2017 in style! Don't forget your dollar bills

POST-PRIDE WEEK EVENTS

Saturday April 15th Safe Zone LGBTQ Ally Training

9:15am-4:30pm, please navigate to lgbtq.gmu.edu to register

Join the Safe Zone Training Team for a Fairfax full-day LGBTQ Ally training

Tuesday April 18th Well-Being Day Carnival

Noon-4pm, North Plaza

Join the Well-Being Team to zen out on the SUB I Quad or enjoy live music

Thursday April 27th Arlington Campus Safe Zone Training

9:15am-4:45pm, please navigate to lgbtq.gmu.edu to register

University Life Arlington & the Safe Zone Training Team present an Arlington LGBTQ Ally training to close the semester

LGBTQ+ Pride is a tradition that goes beyond Mason; it can be traced back to the Stonewall Uprising. At Mason, we celebrate Pride Week during early April. Our partners across campus help us support student-led workshops, talent shows, film screenings, & more! Please contact Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, & Questioning (LGBTQ) Resources staff with any questions. Phone: (703) 993-2702 Website: lgbtq.gmu.edu

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual,
Transgender, Queer and Questioning Resources